5 Obtain Spousal Consent, if Necessary

If your spouse has NOT been named as the sole primary beneficiary, spousal consent may be required.

It is the account owner's responsibility to determine if spousal consent is required and to ascertain if the language on this form satisfies applicable state statutes. American Century Services, LLC, State Street Bank and Trust Company, and any affiliate and/or any of their directors, trustees, employees and agents are not liable for any consequences resulting from your failure to provide spousal consent.

Generally, notarized spousal consent is required if:

- Your account is a retirement account and you live in a community property state. -OR-
- Your account is a 403(b) that is subject to the Qualified Preretirement Survivor Annuity (QPSA) requirement of ERISA. Under this provision, if you are married or later become married and your spouse is not named as sole primary beneficiary, your designation will not be valid unless your spouse has provided consent with notarization, regardless of whether you live in a community property state. Check with your employer to determine if your plan is subject to this provision.

Spousal Consent

As the spouse, by signing my name below, I acknowledge that:

- I have read this form and understand that my spouse did NOT designate me as sole primary beneficiary.
- I voluntarily, unconditionally, and irrevocably consent to this designation and understand that if I were to decline to sign this consent, as the account owner's or participant's surviving spouse, I would be entitled to 100% of any death benefits payable at the time of the account owner's/participant's death.
- For 403(b) Spouses: I have read and understand the explanation and waiver of QPSA provided by my spouse's employer; I understand the financial effect of my spouse's election to waive the QPSA and I waive all rights to a QPSA under my spouse's 403(b) plan.

7 Provide Your Signature and the Date Signed

By signing and dating this form, I confirm I have reviewed the following and authorize this designation. This designation revokes all previous designations for the accounts selected in step 2.

- Spousal consent has been obtained, if necessary.
- It is my responsibility to review and update my designation as soon as possible following a change in family status (marriage, divorce, birth/adoption, death) or if a beneficiary's information changes. I understand that in the event of a divorce, a designation of a former spouse may not be valid unless my former spouse is re-designated by submitting a new beneficiary form after the divorce is final.
- If no valid beneficiary designation is on file at the time of my death, assets will be distributed in accordance with the beneficiary provisions described in the custodial agreement in effect at the time of my death. I understand that I may change my designation at any time and changes are effective when accepted by American Century, the Custodian and the plan administrator (whichever is applicable). I understand that the beneficiary designation submitted herewith is not revoked or changed by any provision of my will, personal trust or other separate agreement (e.g., prenuptial agreement or divorce settlement agreement), and only beneficiary revocations or designations filed with and accepted by American Century prior to my death are considered valid and enforceable.
- 403(b) Investors: I acknowledge that if I am married at the time of my death, my surviving spouse is not designated as my sole primary beneficiary, and the plan is subject to the QPSA requirements of ERISA, this designation of beneficiaries will not be valid unless my surviving spouse has waived the QPSA (on a form provided by my employer) and consented to this beneficiary designation (step 5 of this form).

Please sign your name exactly as it appears on your account, indicate the date signed, and mail the entire form to us.
